This panel offers timely analyses from a diverse group of leaders on the ground, including the earthquake impacted areas and the U.S. Mexico Border, that explores the common roots of these seemingly separate events, including the international community's role in the problems. The panel asks hard questions about how to balance the need for a Haitian solution with the still quite urgent need for international assistance.

Panelists:

Angeline Annesteus, Action Aid

Jean Claudy Aristil, Radyo Ayiti Egalite

Ted St. Dic, Commission for a Haitian Solution to the Crisis
