March 13, 2021

10:00 am - 2:00 pm

10:00 am - 2:00 pm

The Education Department at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden, sponsored by the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center, offers the Ethnobotany for Educators workshop to help participants understand the historical, cultural, and economic significance of plants through time. This one time 4 hour virtual workshop will consist of a combination of lecture, discussion, and guided hands on activities. Teachers will be provided with resources and curriculum to utilize in both a virtual and classroom setting.

*May only register for one session; MPP credits are available for MDCPS teachers - visit mylearningplan.com
Made possible with support from LACC's US Department of Education Title VI Grant*
