

The Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center presents

Peruvian Studies Conference:
Beyond the Bicentennial Celebration /
Más allá de la Celebración Bicentenaria

Thursday, September 9, 2021

9:00 am – 5:00 pm EDT

Online via Zoom

WELCOME AND OPENING REMARKS (9:00 – 9:30 am)

Dr. Barry Levitt, Chair and Associate Professor, Department of Politics and International Relations, FIU

ROUNDTABLE: Nurturing Peruvian Studies at FIU (9:35 – 11:05 am)

Peruvian Studies at FIU/Estudios Peruano en FIU

Dr. David Cook, Professor Emeritus, Department of History, FIU

Judicial Culture in Colonial Perú/Cultura Jurídica en Perú Colonial

Dr. Renzo Honores, Researcher, Instituto Internacional de Derecho y Sociedad and FIU Alumnus

Visits in Colonial Andes/Visitas en los Andes Coloniales

Mr. Alfredo Escudero, Doctoral Student, Department of History, FIU

Velasco Alvarado's Revolutionary Regime/El Regimen Revolucionario de Velasco Alvarado

Ms. Hayley Serpa, Undergraduate Student, Department of History, FIU

Moderator: Dr. Judith Mansilla, Assistant Teaching Professor, Department of History, FIU

*Roundtable will be presented in Spanish with no simultaneous interpretation.

PANEL ONE: Colonial Foundations of Peru's Social and Political Configuration (11:10 am – 12:15 pm)

“De aquí adelante no vos entremetais”: Disputas Jurisdiccionales Entre las Audiencias de Charcas y Lima (virreinato del Perú, siglo XVI)

Dr. Sergio Angeli, Assistant Researcher, Consejo Nacional de Investigaciones Científicas y Técnicas (CONICET), Instituto de Investigaciones de Historia del Derecho (INHIDE), Argentina

Los Esclavos de Lima y su Defensa del Matrimonio en el Siglo XVII

Dr. Yobani Gonzales, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Universidad Federal de Sao Paulo, Brazil

Tratos Recíprocos y la Reconstrucción del Consentimiento Sexual en Lima Durante el Siglo XVIII

Ms. Morgan Gray, Doctoral Student, Department of History, FIU

Moderator: Dr. Bianca Premo, Professor, Department of History, FIU

*Panel 1 will be presented in Spanish with no simultaneous interpretation.

BREAK (12:15 -12:45 pm)

KEYNOTE SPEECH (12:45 – 1:55 pm)

Introductory Remarks

Ambassador Martha Lizárraga Picciotti, Cónsul General, Consulado General del Perú en Miami

Rethinking Andean Independence for the Bicentennial

Dr. Natalia Sobrevilla, Professor, Latin American History, University of Kent

Introduction: Dr. Victor Uribe, Professor and Chair, Department of History, FIU

*In Spanish. Simultaneous interpretation in English will be provided for the Keynote Speech.

PANEL TWO: Independence: A Process from Diverse Angles and with Different Actors (2:00 – 3:20 pm)

Consideraciones Acerca del Proceso de Independencia en el Virreinato Peruano: El caso de la Intendencia de Arequipa (1809-1825)

Mr. Helbert Suyo-Ñaupá, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú

Norte, Política e Independencia del Perú

Dr. Elizabeth Hernández García, Professor, Department of Humanities, Universidad de Piura, Peru

¿El Perú Nació Conservador? Cambios y Continuidades, 1780-1840

Dr. Charles Walker, Professor, Department of History and Director, Hemispheric Institute on the Americas, UC Davis

Moderator: Dr. Judith Mansilla, Assistant Teaching Professor, Department of History, FIU

*In Spanish. Simultaneous interpretation in English will be provided for Panel Two.

PANEL THREE: Peru: A Diverse and Prolific Nation-State (3:25 – 4:45 pm)

Literature and Society in 19th Century Peru

Dr. Maida Watson, Professor, Department of Modern Languages, FIU

Epidemics of Fungal Disease and the Collapse of Montane Amphibian Communities in the Andes: The Case of Manu National Park, Perú

Dr. Alessandro Catenazzi, Assistant Professor, Department of Biological Sciences, FIU

The Peruvian Architects of Latin American International Law: The Role of José María del Pando and José Silva Santisteban

Mr. Walter Abanto, Doctoral Student, Department of Politics and International Relations, FIU

Afro-Peruvian Culture in Peruvian Religion and Society

Ms. Rachael Diaz, Graduate Student, Department of Religious Studies, FIU

Moderator: Dr. María-Luisa Veisaga, Director, Andean Studies Program of Excellence, Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center, FIU

*Panel Three will be presented in English with no simultaneous interpretation.

CLOSING REMARKS (4:45 – 5:00 pm)

Dr. Judith Mansilla, Assistant Teaching Professor, Department of History, FIU

Dr. María-Luisa Veisaga, Director, Andean Studies Program of Excellence, Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center, FIU

Part of LACC's Andean Studies Program of Excellence.
Co-sponsored by the Department of History at FIU and the Consulado General de Perú en Miami. Institutional support from the Proyecto Especial bicentenario de la Independencia del Perú.

Steven J. Green
School of International
& Public Affairs

