

PERUVIAN STUDIES VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

Beyond a Bicentennial Celebration /

Más allá de una Celebración Bicentenaria

Thursday, September 9, 2021

9:00 am-5:00 pm EDT

Online via Zoom

The Bicentennial commemoration of Peru Independence celebrates the configuration of this country into a Nation-State. Understanding its peoples, cultures, and history goes beyond the last two centuries of national life. This conference brings together scholars from different disciplines, whose research contributes to the knowledge and understanding of the current República de Perú.

Registration: <https://go.fiu.edu/Peru>

Image: Pancho Fierro. Sigue la Procesión Cívica de 1821.

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Natalia Sobrevilla

Professor of Latin American History

University of Kent

Part of LACC's Andean Studies Program of Excellence.

Co-sponsored by the Department of History at FIU and the Consulado General del Perú en Miami. Institutional support from the Proyecto Especial Bicentenario de la Independencia del Perú.

For more information, call 305-348-2894.