

GREEN SCHOOL

ISLAND TV INTERNSHIP

Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center

Island TV, a South Florida-based television station, is seeking a dynamic and creative Production Intern for the 2025 Spring semester (01/06/25-04/19/25) to help develop and produce compelling community stories, with the Caribbean community in mind.

The selected Intern will get a unique chance to work in studio and out on the field, as well as collaborate and learn from experienced news and TV producers, journalists, editors and technical crew.

The participant of this internship program will receive a $3,000 stipend.

Island TV is a television station and a multi-media agency that serves as the premier platform for the global dissemination of Caribbean news, culture, and experiences. With distinctive 24-hour programming, available in English, French, & Creole, the channel is accessible through streaming platforms and on cable networks in South Florida and the Caribbean.

Apply here:

https://fiu.joinhandshake.com/jobs/9224430/share_preview

Scan to apply:

INTERNSHIP HIGHLIGHTS:

We are looking for responsible, organized and creative paid interns who have experience or interest in one or more of these fields:

- In and out of studio camera work
- Video Editing, especially Premiere.
- Creative writing, news and script writing.
- Pitching stories, researching topics, particularly related to the Caribbean community in South Florida.
- TV and News Production, planning, coordinating and executing filming plans.
- Part time (15 hours per week).

For additional information please contact Carlos Tinoco at ctinoco@fiu.edu

