Greetings!

¡Saludos!

Saudações!

Sak Pase!

Dear Friends of LACC:

I'm pleased to welcome colleagues, current students, alumni, and friends to our first digital edition of LACC News. I hope that the items below pique your interest and remind you of the unique contribution LACC has made and continues to make in your lives.

Enjoy LACC News! And I hope to hear from you soon!

contact me

Opening doors in our community and our region

Forging linkages means engaging communities and sharing experiences here and abroad. 2013 kicked off with a LACC Affiliated Faculty Interdisciplinary Colloquium featuring guest-speaker Ariel Britos, Uruguayan Conductor and expert on engaging at-risk urban youth through music. On February 13th, Professor Mitchell Seligson (Vanderbilt University) presented a special report on Haiti at FIU's Biscayne Bay Campus; the next day, he launched LAPOP 2012 at the Modesto Maidique Campus.

On Feb. 15th, Frank Mora, incoming LACC Director, spoke at the Miami Consortium's "Rethinking the Colombian Conundrum: Talking

Ariel's kids in action

More information on the events can be found in the latest edition of LACC News.
Peace in a Changing Landscape.

Get to Know...
FIU/Fairchild Scientist Javier Francisco-Ortega

Associate Professor of Biology and a LACC-affiliated faculty, whose work on island flora conservation in partnership with Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden engages locals in restoring native plant life in the Caribbean islands.

Read more ...

Study Abroad
SUMMER IN ARGENTINA

¡Ché! If you or anyone you know wants to brush up on Spanish and learn more about Latin American international relations or Argentine politics, LACC’s four-week Buenos Aires-based, graduate and undergraduate six-credit program should not be missed. Degree and non-degree-seeking participants welcome! Learn more and sign up...

Forging linkages across the Americas through education, research, outreach, and dialogue
Latin American and Caribbean Center, School of International and Public Affairs, Florida International University
DM 353. 11200 S.W. 8th St., Miami, FL 33199 Tel: (305) 348-2894 Fax: (305)
http://lacc.fiu.edu/

Copyright © 2013. All Rights Reserved.