

Latin American and Caribbean Business Forum

Antonio Bazzino, Proquimur, Uruguay

Antonio Bazzino was born in Montevideo, Uruguay. Antonio is CEO of Proquimur, a company dedicated to the production of high-quality chemicals used in the agricultural and forestry sectors with an explicit commitment to environmental protections. Proquimur's fully integrated sustainable practices support responsible resource management and the safety and security of the communities it serves.

Antonio joined the company, founded by his father, in 2009 to further develop its local market and expand its operations. The company is based in Uruguay and operates in Argentina, Bolivia, and Paraguay. Proquimur has eight products registered and for sale in Colombia and plans to expand to markets in Peru, Ecuador, and Brazil. Since 2019, Antonio has served as President of Club Atletico Juanicó, an Uruguayan soccer club founded in 1923 that offers a variety of programs and services to its more than 500 current members.